MASS MURDER

THE CRIME

In Germany up to 1939 there were roughly 200,000 Jews. All except 40,000 have been done to death or deported.

In Austria at most 15,000 Jews survive out of 75,000.

In Bohemia and Moravia also only 15,000 survive. (Previously there were 80,000)

In Slovakia over 70,000 out of 90,000 have been deported.

In Poland more than 600,000 Jews have died a violent death.

In Holland and Belgium out of 180,000 only one-third survive.

In France nearly 50,000 were deported to the East and countless Jews were murdered.

In Yugoslavia out of roughly 100,000 not less than 96,000 have been killed, deported or imprisoned.

In Greece all Jews between 18 and 45 are condemned to slave works: an uncertain number were murdered.

In Romania there were 900,000 Jews: now there are scarcely 250,000

In Latvia one quarter of the Jewish population has been murdered. The rest are doing forced labour or starving in the ghettos.

In Norway all the Jews, over 2,000, were arrested and deported.

One must reckon that far more than 1,000,000 European Jews have already been exterminated.

THE JUDGEMENT OF THE WORLD

The United Nations on 17th December 1942 published a Joint Declaration signed, among others by representatives of Great Britain, America and the Soviet Union, It stated:

From all the occupied countries Jews are being transported, in conditions of appalling horror and brutality, to Eastern Europe. In Poland, which has been made the principal Nazi slaughterhouse, the ghettos established by the German invaders are being systematically emptied of all Jews except a few highly skilled workers required for war industries. None of those taken away are ever heard of again. The able-bodied are slowly worked to death in labour camps. The infirm are left to die of starvation or are deliberately massacred in mass executions. The number of victims of these bloody cruelties is reckoned in many hundreds of thousands of entirely innocent men, women, and children.

The above-mentioned Governments declare that such events can only strengthen the resolve of all freedom-loving peoples to overthrow the barbarous Hitlerite tyranny. They reaffirm their solemn resolution to ensure that those responsible for these crimes shall not escape retribution.

“The destruction of a foreign people is not in contradiction to the laws of life if it is completely fulfilled.”

SS Brigadeführer Dr. K.W. Best, “Zeitschrift für Politik”, June 1942.

Strength by Fear

Why is Adolf Hitler determined, after he has plundered and decimated the Jews, to exterminate them by starvation, gas, fire and the sword?

This unexampled mass murder is intended to pile so colossal a weight of guilt on the German name and to extend the number of the guilty so far that the victors would be unable to make any distinction between the guilty and the innocent. That is what Hitler and his SS are calculating on. They want systematically to kindle the hatred of the whole world against the German people so that they can then say to the German people: "The world will pay you back in the same metal. If you wish to avoid extermination such as we have used against others, you must fight on for Hitler".

"We have made common cause," says Hitler's propaganda. We, i.e., the mass murderers, together with the German people. It is Hitler who is determined to make every German an accomplice in the crimes of the SS.

The German people is beginning to doubt the final victory that was promised. That is why it must be "united", united in fear of the consequences of the most terrible crimes.

But the United Nations are not waging a war of destruction of people against people, race against race, like the Nazis. The United Nations are not fighting for mass murder and "the destruction of foreign peoples" like the SS.

But have no illusions. Anyone who accepts the theory and practise of the SS, as laid down by SS Brigadeführer Best, himself is liable to the same law and will have the same measure meted out to him. It is a part of justice that the responsible should be brought to account and that no guilty man should escape his punishment.

Keep your hands clean, therefore. Every German must now decide whether he will share the fate of the Nazi criminals. An account is being kept.
