

TRANSLATION OF G.42/1942, GEDANKEN DES FÜHRERS ÜBER DIE WAFFEN SS

(OBVERSE)

THE FÜHRER'S THOUGHTS OVER THE WAFFEN-SS

The secret document reproduced on this page was captured by British soldiers in Libya, in the Headquarters of the 2nd Battery of the 75th Artillery Regiment, during March of this year.

Here is the background of the document:-

On the 6th August 1940 Hitler gave orders for the reorganisation of the Leibstandarte Adolf Hitler. At the same time he announced "the future tasks of the Waffen-SS". As can be seen from the document, a summary of this order was, on 11th September 1940, circulated as "most secret" to generals down to and including army corps commanders. Half a year later, in March 1941, this document was circulated to all army officers, though still marked "secret".

HITLER'S CHARTER FOR THE SS

The document reproduced on the other side contains Hitler's ideas on "the need for a Waffen-SS".

He was eager that his ideas should be given the widest circulation.

We are doing this.

This secret document for the first time shows Hitler's real war aim. It is not defence of Germany but the conquest of a new "Greater German Reich".

The task of the Waffen-SS in this new Greater German Reich is, according to his own words, the war on the inner front.

1. Against whom on the inner front is the Waffen-SS to wage war for Hitler?

Against the conquered peoples of Europe.

"The Greater German Reich in its final form will not exclusively embrace within its frontiers national units per se well disposed towards the Reich. It is therefore necessary to maintain State police troops outside as well as inside the present core of the Reich, capable on any and every occasion of representing and asserting the internal authority of the Reich.”

Against the workers of Europe, including German workers.

“Such a contingent will feel a pride in its integrity and will therefore never fraternise with the proletariat and with that underworld which undermines the fundamental idea.”

2. Why does Hitler absolve the army from action on the inner front?

Because he cannot rely on the German soldier shooting his own brother Germans.

“It must never again be tolerated in the future that the German Armed Forces, conscripted from the whole people, should be sent into action in times of interior crisis against their own fellow citizens.”

3. Who handed the German people over to the mercy of the Waffen-SS?

Not only Hitler. The Generals agreed to this use of the Waffen-SS on the inner front. In this way they hoped to retain their own position of power in the State while at the same time saving their own faces, for they are, after all, “solely and exclusively designated for action against exterior enemies of the Reich.”

Since August 1940, when Hitler decreed that the Waffen-SS “returning home in the ranks of the army after having proved itself in the field, will possess the authority to carry out their tasks as State police” against the inner enemy, he has increased its size more than tenfold and has made it into an independent body outside the army.

HITLER CANNOT REPUDIATE THIS OFFICIAL DOCUMENT.
HE IS THEREFORE TACITLY ADMITTING THAT:-

He fights not a defensive war but a war of conquest:

He has specifically nominated the Waffen-SS as a permanent army for civil war (Bürgerkriegsarmee) on the inner front:

And the generals condone this handing over of the German people to Himmler’s Soldateska.
